

Feasts of Fellowship

Potluck meals to promote fellowship among St. Pascal members

- WHO: Singles and couples are invited to join in St. Pascal's Feasts of Fellowship activity. Six to eight people (couples/singles) will be randomly assigned to a group. Each Fall and Spring season the groups are reassigned; multiplying the opportunities for new friendships to be made.

Each month a home host would also invite another couple or two singles, who are not presently participating in a Feasts of Fellowship group to join their group for a one time only dinner. It is hoped that after this exposure to a small, comfortable fellowship group, that they might sign up to be a part of the next season's round of meals.

The activity reoccurs twice each year with the same pattern – parishioners sharing three meals with two extra guests invited by the host, at each of the three meals. Participants will be assigned randomly; groups will have variety and be ever changing. Singles may sign up with or without a parish friend. The St. Pascal Women's Club is sponsoring this activity.

- WHEN: Each group will choose dates for their meals: Fall – September, October, November and Spring - February, March and April. They also will choose three homes for these meals.

When assignments are made one person/couple is designated to set the date and home for the first meal; at that meal the group will set the dates and locations of the two other meals.

- HOW: The meals can take different forms: brunch, picnic, build a pizza. Most often it will be a dinner at which the rotating host supplies the main course and the Feasts of Fellowship participants bring the salad, bread and dessert. The group could even decide on a meal out at a restaurant, being mindful of possible financial limitations of the members.

There will be no cost to the participants. Participants will be encouraged to make the meals casual and comfortable. NOT formal; NOT gourmet; NOT pretentious!
